sink into a peaceful sleep from which she never awoke.

Mrs. Sudduth was the mother of ten children, three of whom, Joseph, Carrie and Ruth preceded her in death. She is survived by John L., of Ft. Pierre, S. D., Nelson Z., of Sturgis, S. D., Wm.
W., of Belcherville, Texas, James M., of Kansas City, Kans., Ira F., of Le Mars, Ia., Mary F., of Ft. Pierre, S. D., and Milton A., of Spokane, Wash. Also two sisters, Mrs. V. V. Hussey and Mrs.
C. A. Myers of Washington, and brother J. E. T. Combs of Whiting. Mrs. Sudduth was a devoted Christian, and a member of the M. E. Church. She was converted in 1877 and several years later experienced heart purity which she maintained and enjoyed until death. One of her last utterances were, "How good Jesus is to me."

The remains were taken to Marshalltown, Iowa, where they were placed beside those of her husband.
Funeral services were conducted by Chaplain H. O. Pratt, of the Soldiers' Home, who on the 28th Paula and portions of John 14, using the words, "All who are in their graves, shall come forth, they that have sown good, unto the resurrection of life; and they who have sown evil, unto the resurrection of judgment." Rev.
L. F. and Mary Pratt officiated at the funeral.

Now comes rest,

Mrs. Martha Jane Sudduth was the third child of Mr. and Mrs.
N. Combs. She was born May 4, 1848, in Jasper Co. Mo., from which place Mr. Combs moved to Englewood Co. Illinois, the same year. They remained there until 1854 when they again moved to Missouri, residing in Clinton Co.
Here the deceased grew to womanhood, and on Sept. 29, 1859, was united in marriage to James W.
Sudduth. In the spring of 1861, she with her husband moved near Whiting, Monona County, Iowa.
Removing to Illinois in 1864, residing in Cass and Green counties until 1870, when they returned to Iowa. In 1885 they moved to Greigwick County, Kansas, for the benefit of Mrs. Sudduth's health.
They again returned to Iowa in 1886 where they resided until Mrs. Sudduth's failing health, causing them to enter the Iowa Soldiers Home at Marshalltown, May 1, 1912, where Mr. Sudduth died March 31, 1914. In October of last year, Mrs. Sudduth with her daughter Mary, and granddaughter, went to reside at Ft. Pierre, S. D., where she was taken ill on Feb. 5, with an attack of liver trouble. After being confined to her bed for four days, she seemed to be convalescing nicely when she again became ill on the evening of the 13th, which resulted in a rupture of the gall bladder, followed by peritonitis, from which she died at 1:40 A. M. Feb. 16, 1916.
Her sufferings, though of short duration, was very severe until
